Dynex Capital, Inc. Announces CFO Transition

Michael Sartori appointed Chief Financial Officer, Succeeding Robert Colligan

GLEN ALLEN, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Dynex Capital, Inc. (the "Company") (NYSE: DX), a REIT with a long track record of generating dividends from high-quality mortgage assets, today announced that Michael Sartori, Head of Capital Markets and Financial Planning and Analysis (FP&A), has been appointed Chief Financial Officer effective immediately. Mr. Sartori succeeds Robert Colligan, who is leaving the CFO role by mutual agreement.

"We are pleased to have an executive of Mike's caliber step into the CFO role, as his foundation in accounting and corporate finance, paired with his capital markets expertise and track record of success at Dynex, makes him uniquely suited for this position," said Smriti Laxman Popenoe, Co-Chief Executive Officer and President. "Since joining the Company more than ten years ago, Mike has become a trusted and respected leader both internally and with our external partners. He has played a key role in accelerating Dynex's growth trajectory and raising significant equity capital in a rapidly changing business environment. Mike demonstrates the performance-first mentality and commitment to ethical stewardship that is at the core of our decision making, and I'm confident that with him in the CFO seat, Dynex will maintain our momentum and continue to raise and deploy capital to deliver durable long-term value for our shareholders."

"It is an honor to be appointed CFO, particularly at this exciting time of growth and positive momentum for our Company," said Mr. Sartori. "When I joined Dynex over a decade ago, I was excited to join an innovative, resilient company at the intersection of capital markets and real estate finance. This is an incredible business with an exceptional team, and I look forward to playing an even greater role in executing our strategy and generating value for shareholders."

"On behalf of everyone at Dynex, I'd like to thank Rob for his many contributions to our Company," added Byron L. Boston, Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. "Rob has been an important part of Dynex's exponential growth over the last few years. He has instilled professionalism, rigor and transparency in our financial reporting processes, helping Dynex cement its status as one of the best-performing mortgage REITs this decade. We are grateful for his leadership and expertise."

"It has been a privilege to serve as Dynex's CFO and play my part in executing on our proven strategy that delivers top-tier returns," said Mr. Colligan. "I am proud of the track record of dividend payments to shareholders and the growth in our capital base, and I look forward to seeing all that the team accomplishes in the years ahead. Mike has done a spectacular job growing the capital base of the Company and I am personally excited for him in his new role."

To facilitate a smooth transition of roles and responsibilities, Mr. Colligan has agreed to remain with the Company to serve in an advisory role through May 1, 2026. Mr. Colligan's departure is unrelated to the Company's financial reporting or controls.
